The Walker House and the Carls-Rite were owned by the same company.

The Walker House opened in 1873 and was demolished in 1976.

A FRIEND IN NEED
When times are black and frowning.
And one knows not what to do.
That's the time a fellow turns
To a friend who's real and true.
So if with me things should go wrong
And folks around are blue
To find a ray of sunshine
Old pal I'll turn to you.

Boost

Boost and the world
boasts with you;
Knock, and you're on the shelf;
For the world gets sick of the one who kicks
And wishes he'd kick himself.

Boost when the sun is Boost when it starts to rain;

If you happen to fall, don't lie there and bawl,
But get up and boost

Boost for the town's

For the chap that's found on the topmost round Is the booster every

O! here's a country great and grand,
Where fishing's a plenty and right at hand;
Where the woods are thronged with birds and beasts,
And drinking's regular and eating's a feast.
Where the law regulates but you can quench a thirst
With a beer that's palatable but won't do the worst;
It's a land of freedom and if you want to go For a while of a holiday—this place is the show.

The days are slipping swiftly by
And months stretch into years,
In life's uncertain paths I find Alternate hopes and fears.

Time Flies

The moments fly, the hours speed
The days go by too fast
My visit here seems all too short
But the memory long will last Soon I'll be back again
And the things I'll have to tell
Will make a snappy story book
Meanwhile, good health, all's well.
